It is said that it is home to also prepared to be purchased in 1878 and that Abanandani is a son of a person who secured it for himself. I inspected it in March 1909 & August 1910 and believe that it is the house marked ^B in the sketch as, Likhman Rao's and upmost to the Ravi Bahadur. The house was Chauran's. It is a house built on 16-12-1877 when it was wrongly described as a portion of the Likhman Rao's building.

If the improvements to be effected costing Rs 1500 are to be met from the Benchaya's savings, nothing might remain for the repair of the Likhman Rao's house.

The cost of purchase may be met from the Likhman Rao's savings. The improvements may be met from the savings of the Likhman Rao's house.

I must also make it clear that in purchase of the building will lead to some loss recovery, including and annual charges for repairs, lighting and other expenses. The monthly cost may come to about Rs 12 or 15 and cannot be met from the Likhman Rao's savings for the Likhman Rao's house.

No 85-6 & 12.10.1910

Sanctions the purchase of the house at a cost of Rs 3000/-, awaiting the ~~and~~ Suppl's proposals for revision of the scale of expenditure.

Submitted to His Highness.

The idea of constructing or purchasing a suitable building to provide accommodation for pilgrims at Tiruchanoor near Tirupati in the North Arcot District has been under the consideration of Government from 1897-98, and in the Government Proceedings No.Muz.4672-4 dated the 15th June 1905 passing orders on certain matters connected with the Maharaja's Charities at Tirupati, it was directed that the proposal should lie over until funds become available for the purpose.

2 In his letter No.663 dated the 3rd December 1910, the Muzrai Superintendent represented that it would no doubt be a convenience if there were a Chattram of His Highness the Maharaja at Tiruchanoor also, that a suitable house was available for sale at the place, and that funds could be made available for meeting the cost of purchasing and improving the same from the amount saved out of the allotment for Parahazai Santarpane, and he also stated that if the views of Government in the matter were made known to him he have the price of the house settled. The Second Councillor was of opinion that it was "quite unnecessary to encumber ourselves with such petty institutions out of our jurisdiction" and that "it would be quite sufficient if we maintain the Tirupati charities in efficient condition". I thought, however, that it was desirable to have a Chatram at Tiruchanoor on one of the four sides of the Padmasarovara and that two or three thousand rupees of initial cost and a monthly recurring expenditure of Rs.10 could not be impossible amounts, and ordered that a scheme might be matured on these lines and definite proposals submitted.

3. The Muzrai Superintendent now submits a report from the Officer in charge of the Palace Establishments, whom he had requested to inspect the place and furnish his opinion, in which that officer states that the need for a Mysore Chatram in Tiruchanoor is pressing and recommends the purchase of the house in question for Rs.3,000. The Muzrai Superintendent also states that the Tirupati charities have now a sum of about Rs.3,300 at their credit and can well bear the cost of purchase and that a sum of Rs.10 a month for the pay of the caretaker &c., for the new building can be easily made available by a readjustment of the items of expenditure of the Institution. He solicits early orders about the purchase of the house.

4. The Second Councillor adheres to the opinion already expressed by him that it is unnecessary and undesirable to increase such petty institutions outside the State, but he adds that he will however leave the matter to the Dewan. I still think that it is necessary and desirable to have a Mysore Chatram at Tiruchanoor also, and would recommend that the purchase of the house, as recommended by the Muzrai Superintendent, may be sanctioned. The words "Tirupati Charities" in the foregoing lines refer to feeding and housing on the top of the hill. The words "Chatram at Tiruchanoor" mean a rest-house at foot of the hill and as the latter would be exceedingly useful to those who resort to the former, and to those many others who resort to the Tirupati Shrine without going up the hill, for the performance of marriages and other avowed ceremonies, it is considered to be a most desirable complement of the former. Reference is here solicited to paras 13, 14 and 31 of Mr. Anantasami Rao's note dated the 24th September 1904 and to the extract appended thereto from the Visitor's Book maintained at Upper Tirupati containing the remarks of Mr. P. Paghavendra Rao (then

then Assistant Private Secretary to His Highness the Maharaja).

I have the honor to forward herewith an original report
No. 143 dated 22nd November 1910 from the Muziraji Deshikar which is enclosure about a suggestion of building a hall in Mysore at Chinnarayana and to state that the idea of having such a hall was entertained by my predecessors in office who seem also to have made representations to Government once or twice. The recommendation was not sanctioned perhaps because a suitable building was not available in 1898 and too late there were no funds in 1904.

2. It would no doubt be a convenient if there were a program of this kind in the charge of Mysore. I have also seen a building proposed to be purchased by M. S. Government in 1904 is not available. The cost of purchasing the property of 1910, I recommend, be met from the sum of Rs. 11000-0-0 ^{saved} out of the amount allowed for Muzirajir Santhi, etc.

3. If on perusal of the previous report you are favored with the views of Government about having a hall in Mysore, I shall after further enquiry have the same settled.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. Subrahmanyam

District Superintendent.

A. Subramanya Iyer Esquire, B. A., Muzrai Superintendent in Mysore.

To,

The Offg. Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments, Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 1882/Muz. 291-10-2 dated 24th January 1911 about a Chattram at Tiruchanur, I have the honor to forward herewith a D. O. letter No. 1494 dated 14th June 1911 and its enclosures received from the Officer in charge of the Palace Establishments whom I had requested to kindly inspect the place and furnish his opinion as he proposed to visit Tirupati. It will be seen that he thinks a Chattram at Tiruchanur is a necessity and the price of Rs. 5,000/- now asked for the house is fair. The Tirupati Charities have now a sum of about Rs. 5,500 to their credit and can well bear the cost of purchase.

2. I should have submitted my report much earlier had it not been necessary to scrutinize the accounts of the Institution and see in the expenditure could be so readjusted as to make available a sum of Rs. 10/- a month for the pay of a care-taker etc. of the new building to be purchased. The scrutiny has satisfied me that this sum can be very easily made available. I am in correspondence with the Peskar about revising the scale of expenditure. Proposals will soon be submitted.

3. In the mean time I request that early orders may be passed - about purchasing the house as the Peskar reports that the Vendor is pressing for a very early reply.
